

To Do: January 25–February 8, 2017

Twenty-five things to see, hear, watch, and read.

Published Jan 22, 2017  Share

 Comment

Art

17. See Carl D’Alvia; Endless

Double duty.

From some magical, mystical garden of unseen shapes all covered in surfaces that imitate tree trunks, animal fur, and feathers, sculptor-magician extraordinaire Carl D’Alvia’s double show is a tour de force, using simulated wood grain cast in resin, returning us to a golden age of heroic sculpture. One series of box shapes bisects the length of the gallery; a second show gives us his incredible wild imagination of form. —J.S.

Nathalie Karg, 291 Grand St., and Regina Rex, 221 Madison Ave., through February 19.